SHIP UNDER FIRE?

"FATSHAN" IN THE DARK AT WHAMPOA.

MORE CANTON SEQUEEZE.

That the "Fatshan" was challenged by shots from the Canton River bank at Whampon, while sailing to Canton on Thursday, is reported in the vernacular papers. It is explained that the ship was towing a lighter. The extra effort decreased speed and it was not till 9 p.m. that Canton was reached. On ordinary days the boat is alongside about 3 p.m. Vhampon was being passed darkness. All the passengers going up from Hongkong were landed. A motor-boat, said to be Swissowned and Russian-manned, took passengers off, six at a time, at a charge of $10 or $5, continues the same report. A long rowing boat is also stated to have assisted in disembarking the passengers.

On the "Fatshan" were three delegates from the combined association of Chinese district commercial guilds in Hongkong. who were taken off by a motorboat sent out to meet them. These delegates, it is said, are on the same mission as that of a large body of unsuccessful predecessors who went up to "negotiate" a settlement."

BITTER ATTACKS ON LEVINGE MEN

EX-CLERK TO THE PRIVE COUNCIL.

Servant of high position should have linen: offended against certain of the canons of good taste as Sie Almeric Fitzroy does in these volumes, says "Daily Mail," roviewing "Momoirs," by Sir Armeric Fitzroy. 2 vols. (Hutchinson, 42s.): He repents, for example, unflattening criticisms by one eminent living man on another eminent living man, when such criticisms were presumably given to him confidentially and; if disclosed, must cause great pain! Having filled an office of the highest trust such us the clerkship of the Privy Council, he might have been expected to show discretion and reticence. He is very ready to blume other people, but seems here totally to forget at times. The responsibilities of his place. This is the more noticeable because of the very superior attitude which he taken place at the exact time o' adopts throughout. Thus this Clerk the earthquake. of Privy Council writes of Sir John Simon, a Privy Councillor, in one of his acid paragraphs :

His conscience is a parcel of nunctilies: 'The is sensitive and fidgaty by temperament; and his mental disposition, ignoring the broad lurrmonies of conduct, leads him to dwell on superficial contradictions — im intermittent scrupulosity of conscience finds its complement in the timidity of the over-trained lawyer, a LOCAL SHOPPING.

MESSRS, MACKINTOSH & CO.'S ENTERPRISE.

Hongkong's shopping centre compares favourably with any in the Far East, thanks to the enterprise of our leading local stores. A further example of this enterprise is to be noted in the premises of Mackintosh and Co. Ltd., where there have just been installed some very fine specimens: of the work of the well-known world shop fitters, Frederick Sage and Co., in the shape of show cases which add to the attractiveness of this well-known establishment and render easy the task of the customer in seeking particular grades or shades of apparall The all-glass show case on the right of entry into the premises is fitted with concealed electric lighting from the front and is a delight to look at quite apart from the nature of the choice wares within; an upright glass case in the doorway completes an imposing entrance; whilst a particularly fine feature on the left is the large case in which the whole of the contents of each drawer are Empress of Asia, plainly visible to the prospective | Empress of Canada, purchaser even so far as to minute | Empress of Russia, shades of colour.

OBITUARY. MRS. STINER.

We regret to record the death of Mrs. Stiner, wife of Corporal Stiner of the R.C.S. which took place at the Victoria Hospital on Friday, cause of death being chronic inflammation of the liver and jaundice.

Mrs. Stiner had been in the Colony for three years and was preparing to leave for home on December 29. She leaves five young children, the eldest nine and the youngest three years old.

The funeral was held at Happy Valley and was attended by a number of residents of the Married Quarters and a number of the men of the bereaved husband's unit and of the Royal Engineers to which he was attached.

Mrs. H. W. Chancy is a pussenger to Manila on the 'President'

A QUAINT SUPER-

Bobbing for apples is another old Hallowe'en custom. The younger folk ate theirs as quickly as they retrieved them from the big tub of water in which they floated, but the maiden budding. into womanhood deferred this pleasure until midnight. creeping quietly out of bed, she Nov. would eat the fruit before her looking-glass while combing out her hair, when the face of her Nove future husband might reasonably be expected to look over her shoulder into the mirror. Learned folk tell us that this old custom: is of Pagan origin, being an survival from the worship of Pomona, the Roman goddess of

We want every cinema-goer in Hongkong to see "The Lotus Eater", which we consider one of the finest films we have been privileged to present.

A great story—a brilliant cast headed by a wonderful star-settings that vary from snow bound New York in wluter to the eternal summer of the South Seasdirection that is nearly flawless-make this, a picture to be remembered.

"The Lotus Ester" is being accorded a special presentation at "The Queen's".

Our Gang in LODGE NIGHT

A Big Drama of the Great Outdoors!

NOT a Cowboy Picture, although there. are several cowboys in it; NOT a Wild and Woolly Western, although there are some wonderful night scenes among cattle on the hoof, BUT a powerful and very human story of two women who loved one man, set amid scenes of surpassing beauty,
